

How to book on a course

- (1) Once you log in, click on the A-Z courses or one of the categories to find your course. Alternatively, you can click on the course search box to find a course.

- (2) Here you will find a summary list of courses (depending on what option you clicked). Once you click on the course title, you may be asked if you want to enrol onto a course, click Enrol me. (Please note: by enrolling onto a course the user is not booking a place, they are registering their interest and the course will appear at the top of their personal list of courses)

- (3) Once you have entered into a course you will see further headings
1. Classroom training (Topic 1)
  2. Evaluation (Topic 2)
  3. Certificate (Topic 3)

- (4) Click on the link under section 1. Classroom training i.e. What Do You See or the view all sessions to see the event details including learning outcomes, times, terms and conditions.

What Do You See (Follow up to Grandma Remember Me) *FULLY FUNDED*

Your progress ?

Acting as a companion piece to "Grandma Remember Me?", "What Do You See?" follows the next stage of dementia, exploring issues around care homes and end of life palliative care. It looks at the importance of life histories within person centred care, challenges taboos around death and shows the possibility of choice and the empowerment advance care planning brings.

Az2B Theatre Company are proud to present their new play "What Do You See?" A "theatrical feast" which aims to impact positive change. Described as "powerful" "realistic" and "incredibly funny."

You would not want to be a resident at Marshall Joan's Care Home. Demotivated staff, no stimulation and a culture that lacks care. Fortunately they've just failed their CQC inspection leading to a change in ownership, are things about to change? Let's hope so!

It takes good leadership to impact change, and as important as it is to create a positive environment and culture of care for residents, it is equally important to create an environment that staff want to work in.
